How to unite with our family

At First Baptist Church, Brownwood, we welcome you to become a part of our family of faith. We invite you to visit one of our Sunday School classes & Bible Study groups, as well as the worship choir, student & children's groups.

Membership in the church is offered to anyone who professes Jesus Christ as their Savior and follows Him in believer's baptism. One of the ministers will be glad to visit with you during the invitation or make an appointment to discuss this or any other questions you may have about FBC at your convenience.

\ If you have a decision to make or wish to talk or pray with someone, we invite you to come to the front of the Sanctuary during the invitation hymn, immediately following the sermon, and speak with one of the ministers.*

Written On Our Hearts

Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age.

Matthew 28:19-20 (NIV)

Tue 8:00 p.m. Trivia

At this writing it is a little after 9 PM on a Wednesday evening. I am already in bed and fading fast. Greg Church, Jeremy Johnson, Debbie McGlothlin and her husband rode from San Saba to Brownwood on a bicycle earlier in the day. Not all on the same bicycle of course, although Debbie and her husband did share one for the first 22 miles and the last 6. I am in bed because I need to get some sleep before the Brownwood to Abilene trek tomorrow. Jeremy and Debbie had sense enough to not sign up for that leg of the journey. I am praying for torrential rains tomorrow. Hopefully you are reading this on Mother's Day saying to yourself, "That preacher knows how to pray for rain." We could use the rain. I could use the rest.

I think our Wednesday evening was a great time of learning together about hunger in our world and its roots in poverty. We also learned some things we can do about it. Today's Mother's Day offering will go a long way toward providing immediate food relief to many and helping others to help feed themselves for the long term. I am grateful to the Christian Life Commission of the Baptist General Convention of Texas. This has been an issue with them for a long time. The Mother's Day offering and the Bike Out Hunger ride are newer ways of increasing our commitment as a Baptist people to this cause.

There is a lot going on in our services today in addition to that mentioned above. Collin Bishop has answered God's call to Christian Ministry. He graduated from HPU yesterday. He has a ministry position with a church this summer working with youth. Today we join together to license him to the gospel ministry.

We also dedicate Ryker Stippick. More than that, we will hear the confession of David and Hillary as to their intentions to raise him to be a devoted follower of Jesus. We will pledge ourselves as partners in this task.

God is good. I love my church and its commitment to people in need, to students who respond to God's call, and to parents who long to point their children toward Christ. I am glad to be
